President's Corner

This is the time of the year when so much is happening at once, it's hard to keep up (and you thought that was only at election time!!).

I hope you thought the conversation on February 26th was valuable and thought-provoking. It was an assessment of possible League action related to the impact on Rochester of the riots of July '64 and the subsequent efforts to provide equality of opportunity for our fellow citizens in Rochester. There will be a follow-up opportunity for you to attend a guided tour at the Rochester Museum Science Center on March 14th entitled "Race: Are we so different?" (For additional details, please see page 1.)

On February 5th I attended the Lobby Day training in Albany representing our League. The concerns we talked about on January 12th are outlined in the next column on this page.

Kathy Smith, our Advocacy chair, will be asking some of you to accompany her to one-on-one meetings with your own state legislator to help her by taking notes. This is our League doing what it is best known for: our grassroots effort to influence our representatives by sharing the positions we have on subjects being debated.

Governor Cuomo's budget is having an impact on groups which have depended on the state for funding. Many of their programs are being grouped into 6 larger groups which will be competing for diminishing funds in a competitive process. Two groups have contacted me, and I agreed to let them share their concerns with you on page 8. They are a natural fit with our state and national positions on "Meeting Basic Human Needs" which "support programs and policies to prevent or reduce poverty and to promote self-sufficiency for individuals and families." (LWVUS Impact on Issues, A Guide to Public Policy Positions, 2010-2012)

In League,

Georgia DeGregorio
President

Untold Truths: Immigration & You

During the January 28th press conference on the bi-partisan Committee for Immigration Reform, Charles Schumer remarked "...For the first time ever, there is more political risk in opposing immigration reform than in supporting it..."

Our timing, then, could not be better for our April forum.

PLEASE SAVE THE DATE:
MONDAY, APRIL 22, 2013

UNTOLD TRUTHS: IMMIGRATION & YOU

A forum offered by League of Women Voters/RMA in collaboration with Greater Rochester Coalition for Immigration Justice, will be held at Brighton Town Hall Auditorium, 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Our speakers for the evening are Andrea Callan, a constitutional lawyer with the NYCLU; The Rev. Richard Witt, the Director of the Rural & Migrant Ministry and Rev. Chava Redonnet, Chaplain at Church of Oscar Romero at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality. Ms. Callan will address state and federal immigration reform efforts, Rev. Witt will focus on the Justice for Farm Workers Campaign (JFW) and Rev. Redonnet will recount personal stories of the Wayne County migrant population she serves.

For background, may we suggest Into the Beautiful North, a novel by Luis Alberto Urrea.

Thanks to the Immigration Committee: Gin Busack, Sally Chamberlin, Lory Ghertner, Betty Schaeffer and Alison Wilder.

Women's Equality Agenda

LWVNY has joined a coalition supporting Governor Cuomo's NY for Women's Equality Agenda. Please call your NY Assembly Member and NY Senator NOW to express your support for this 10-point plan listed on the following pages!

Whenever a comprehensive program bill is presented or several bills are introduced, you'll receive an alert to contact them again. When the legislation is ready for a vote you may wish to speak specifically to a couple of points you know well, or you may opt to speak as a constituent to the League's position that all these areas of gender inequality need to be addressed in the 2013 session.

NY For Women's Equality

New York has long served as a model for equality and fairness on several issues including women's rights. At the 2013 State of the State Address, Governor Cuomo announced plans to advance a 10-Point Women's Equality Act that will break down barriers that perpetuate discrimination and inequality based on gender.

1. Protect a Woman's Freedom of Choice by Enacting the Reproductive Health Act: New York was a national leader protecting choice even before the Supreme Court's Roe v. Wade decision. Governor Cuomo will continue to vigorously protect a woman's right to choose. Therefore, he will fight for passage of the Reproductive Health Act, which will protect the fundamental right of reproductive freedom and a woman's right to make private health care decisions. A woman facing an unplanned or problem pregnancy should have the opportunity to make the best decision for herself and her family, whether her decision is continuing the pregnancy, adoption, or abortion.
2. Achieve Pay Equity: Women in New York earn 84% of what men earn. This wage gap is even more severe for African-American and Hispanic Women, who earn 66% and 55% of that earned by non-Hispanic men in New York State, respectively. This amendment to the current law would ensure that women receive the wages they were always entitled to, as well as provide for an additional amount of liquidated damages equal to 300% of the back wages due. This new law would also tighten current exceptions so that pay differentials are only allowed when the employer can show that the differential is based on something other than sex and is related to job performance. Additionally, the proposal will prohibit employers from terminating or retaliating against employees who share wage information, a practice that enables wage disparities to persist undetected.
3. Stop Sexual Harassment in All Workplaces: Three quarters of the sexual harassment complaints filed in this State are filed by women. This amendment to the current law would protect workers from sexual and other forms of harassment regardless of the size of the workplace. Under the new law, an employee of any business, large or small, may file a complaint for sexual harassment.
4. Allow for the Recovery of Attorneys' Fees in Employment and Credit and Lending Cases: Over 75% of the employment and credit and lending cases in this State are filed by women. The current law states that an individual cannot recover attorneys' fees for employment and credit and lending discrimination cases even after proving discrimination at trial. As a result (a) many who are discriminated against never seek redress; (b) those who hire an attorney on a contingency fee arrangement are not “made whole” for their losses because they must pay for their attorneys out of their recovery; and (c) some who cannot afford to hire an attorney, but who try to do so on a contingency basis, are unsuccessful because the case is either too small or too risky. This plan would amend the law to include a provision for reasonable attorneys’ fees for successful litigants, and ensure that victims of employment and credit and lending discrimination – most of whom are women – have an opportunity to vindicate their rights.

5. Strengthen Human Trafficking Laws: Human trafficking is a crime that exploits vulnerable individuals through force, fraud or coercion. The victims of sex trafficking are almost always women. The plan strengthens the existing law to remove the requirements that “coercion” be proven when the victims are minors, increase penalties for trafficking and create an affirmative defense in prostitution prosecutions that the defendant’s participation was a result of having been a sex trafficking victim.
6. End Family Status Discrimination: Women with children are less likely to be recommended for hire and promoted, and, in most cases,, are offered less in salary than similarly situated men. This proposal would amend the current law to prohibit employers from denying work or promotion to workers simply because they have children.
7. Stop Source-of-Income Discrimination: Many households suffer discrimination by landlords who are unwilling to rent to voucher holders. Female-headed households account for 76% of all housing choice vouchers issued, including section 8 vouchers. This amendment to the Human Rights Law will prohibit landlords from discriminating against tenants based on lawful sources of income.
8. Stop Housing Discrimination for Victims of Domestic Violence: Discrimination against victims of domestic violence is almost always discrimination against women – 85% of domestic violence victims are women. Under current state law, victims of domestic violence have no protection from discrimination in housing, meaning landlords can evict victims of domestic violence under zero-tolerance policies. This amendment to the Human Rights Law would protect victims of domestic violence from discrimination when they attempt to purchase, rent, or lease housing. In addition, the new law would prohibit landlords from inquiring about domestic violence victim status, as well as create an eviction defense in housing court requiring judges to consider facts related to domestic violence in their decision-making.
9. Stop Pregnancy Discrimination Once and For All: In order to adequately protect the rights of pregnant workers, it is necessary to create a specific protection in the Human Rights Law requiring employers to provide a reasonable accommodation for pregnancy-related conditions. Once amended, New York State law will serve as a model for all other states in the nation seeking to protect pregnant women from discrimination in the workplace.
10. Protect Victims of Domestic Violence by Strengthening Order-of-Protection Laws: Women face too many obstacles in securing protection from their abusers. Requiring victims of domestic violence seeking an order of protection to be in physical proximity to their abuser in court may be traumatic, unsafe, intimidating, and may ultimately influence testimony. This amendment will ensure that victims of domestic violence will be allowed to provide all required testimony by video-conference.

Book Club Reminder!

Our new League Book Club will meet for the first time at 10 am on Saturday, March 2nd, at Rundel Memorial Library. Please bring your suggestions for books that we could read and discuss – just remember that they should connect to our League (local, state or national) positions, and they may be fiction or non-fiction.

Parking is available in the Court Street Garage, Level 1, which leads directly into the library. We'll meet in the Literature Study Room in the older building which is connected through the brightly-lit gallery tunnel.

Have a question? Call Georgia DeGregorio 787-9692 or email georgiatd1@gmail.com.

Who Represents You?

Each year the League publishes this brochure listing elected officials, from mayors and city council representatives to county legislators to our representatives in Albany and those in Washington. We're happy to announce that once again we've secured funding to do so thanks to the Rochester Area Community Foundation. The information has been updated, and this year we will publish an edition online so that if changes occur before next year, we can keep it updated.

Of course we will continue to offer a print version, and it will be distributed at many locations throughout Monroe County, especially public libraries.

If you need copies, contact Barbara Grosh at 415-8251 or barbara@grosh.net.

Milestones

We are sad to report that long-time League member Claire Tuttle died on January 22nd.

Claire grew up in Flushing, Queens, and came to Keuka College as a 16-year old. She fell in love with the Finger Lakes--and with her husband, David, who grew up in Elmira.

After moving to Rochester, they raised four children, and she taught in an inner-city school. Later she became a business librarian at Rochester's Rundel Library and continued there as a volunteer after her retirement.

Claire was a member of the League for more than 50 years and was particularly active on the Project Positive Campaign committee (even keeping the large bus placards in her garage). She loved to read and enjoyed a rousing political discussion. She was a warm, friendly and giving person, always enthusiastic, knowledgeable and caring. We will miss her.

March 24, 1919

On March 24, 1919 Carrie Chapman Catt proposed the formation of a "league of women voters to 'finish the fight' and to aid in the reconstruction of the nation."

The occasion was the 50th Anniversary Jubilee Convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, in St. Louis. In proposing a "fitting commemoration," Catt asked: "What could be more natural than that women who have attained their political independence should desire to give service in token of their gratitude? What could be more appropriate than that such women should do for the coming generation what those of a preceding period did for them? ... Let us then raise up a league of women voters ...; a league that shall be non-partisan and nonsectarian in character ..."

Sunshine Corner

HENRIETTA TOWN BOARD 1/1/13

Observed by John and Jane Schmitt

Sound system continues to be inadequate. Citizens in attendance at the meeting find it difficult to hear the proceedings. There was an audience of 6-12 at the meeting.

Our Observers noted that a proposal for a housing development north of Lehigh Station Road was withdrawn due to traffic problems and a close proximity to wetlands. The writer wonders if the developer will try again in the future.

(To view the full minutes from this and other meetings, please click here: <http://www.henrietta.org/boards/town-board.html>)

IRONDEQUOIT WORKSHOP 1/9/13

Observed by Gin Busack

Observer could hear the proceedings due to the new microphone used! The agenda was reviewed for the 1/15/13 Board meeting. No LWV issues noted.

IRONDEQUOIT TOWN BOARD 1/15/13

Observed by Gin Busack

No LWV issues noted. Of note is a proposed change to the R7 code for the developers of the Legacy project.

MONROE COUNTY WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE 1/30/13

Observed by Sara Yaworsky and Elaine Schmidt

Observers talked briefly with the Legislature Clerk about the fact that the agenda for the meeting was not available the day before the meeting. The clerk told us that the agenda was put on the website at 2:30 pm the day of the Ways & Means Committee. We were assured that this was legal. Sara pointed out that Monroe County is free to set a higher bar than the minimum requirement to make the agenda available to the public before the meeting. The Committee approved the acquisition of the Kodak site for Monroe Community College by a 9-1 vote. It will go on to the full Legislature now.

Carrie Andrews inquired about the results of the employee dependent survey conducted by the County. She was told a full report will be given at the full Legislature meeting.

New York State Food Budget

Sometimes it helps to hear directly from the organizations that are on the "front lines". We share their concerns regarding the impact of the Governor's budget on programs we strongly support. The following articles are submitted by two such programs.

If you feel moved to convey your opinions to your legislators or governor, we ask you to write as a constituent, not as a League member. The reason being that your state and local League will write or lobby in the League's name enabling us to speak with one voice, expressing the specific concerns of the League as an organization.

CUOMO BUDGET AFFECTS FOODLINK PROGRAMS

Governor Cuomo's proposed 2013-2014 budget would eliminate direct state funding allocations for critical anti-hunger programs such as the Hunger and Nutrition Prevention Assistance Program (HPNAP) and the Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program. Foodlink administers HPNAP funds which provide major assistance to soup kitchens, food pantries, emergency shelters, kids-cafes and other programs in our area. Funding for hunger programs in the state would need to compete for funding with seventeen other programs every year under the Maternal, Child Health and Nutrition category. Foodlink urges all people concerned about hunger and poverty issues to contact their state legislators with the following message: "Please restore dedicated, line-item funding for HPNAP at no less than the amount already approved in Fiscal year 2013." Thank you!

INVITATION TO ADVOCACY WORKSHOP.

BREAD FOR THE WORLD is a collective Christian voice urging our nation's decision-makers to end hunger at home and abroad. BFW collaborates with all faith groups and with the Alliance to End Hunger by researching and lobbying federal legislators on hunger and poverty issues. BFW also works with the Hunger Action Network of New York State. (HAN-NYS).

On Sunday, March 17, 2013, from 1:30 pm to 4:00 pm, Third Presbyterian Church, 4 Meigs Street in Rochester will host a Bread for the World Regional Advocacy Workshop. The purposes of this workshop are to learn about recent developments in hunger and poverty issues at the federal and state levels, to understand the importance of advocating for change and to learn effective techniques for writing and calling on local legislators. All are welcome! Contact: Carol Coons, Third Church Hunger Team Leader, at 585-227-5953 or e-mail: cycoons@frontier.com.
