

Candidates vying for Pittsford Village government seats to debate

Mar. 13

democratandchronicle.com

The six candidates running for three seats in Pittsford Village government will host a candidates' forum on Wednesday.

Friends of Pittsford Village and the League of Women Voters are co-sponsoring the debate, scheduled at Pittsford Sutherland High School at 7 p.m.

Residents are welcome to attend the forum with questions, which will be asked by the moderator, Katherine Smith, Advocacy Chair with the League of Women Voters.

Mayor Bob Corby and Trustee Trip Pierson are running for mayor. Stacy Freed, Lili Lanphear, Chris Linares and Leslie Buck are running for two open seats on the Village Board of Trustees. The election is March 19.